A convict named the Shade had found a way out by escaping into the astral plane except things went wrong and he got trapped in-between and the only way he could come back to the physical world was to grab kids off the street to balance everything out because nobody'd miss them so I went to Doc Strange because I've never been to the astral plane though turns out it's actually a lot like New Jersey which I only know 'cause I was there but in astral form and I took care of the problem but time goes different there than here and by the time I got back still in astral form it was twenty-four hours later and I'd missed picking you up at the airport, missed the chance to talk to you, but I raced for the airport anyway just to see you, to try to talk to you on the way out.
